ABOUT US

Safavii Trading is a trusted international sales and export agent for premium Iranian food and agricultural products.

We partner directly with reputable local producers to supply high-quality dates, raisins, pistachios, nuts, saffron, tomato paste, and other dried fruits to markets worldwide.

With more than 8 years of experience in the food and agricultural sector, we have built strong, long-term partnerships across Europe, the Middle East, Asia, and Africa. Each order is handled with personal attention, from the first inquiry to the moment it reaches your warehouse.

Who We Are?

Safavii represents a network of leading Iranian producers and processing facilities in the field of premium food and agricultural products.

We serve as their dedicated international sales and export department, ensuring that the finest goods from our orchards, farms, and factories reach partners around the world.

Our position is within the production chain — from harvest to packaging — giving us direct oversight of product quality, specifications, and shipment schedules.

Our Approach

Consistent quality standards in every batch.
Flexible specifications tailored to market needs.

On-time deliveries supported by efficient logistics. Every product we offer carries the guarantee of the producer's reputation — and our own commitment to reliability.

Our Products

Iranian raisins, known for their rich flavor and natural sweetness, make a perfect addition to international markets.

Iranian pistachios are renowned for their unique flavor, quality, and vibrant color, making them a sought-after choice in global markets.

Iranian dates, with their exceptional taste and quality, are an excellent choice for export to global markets.

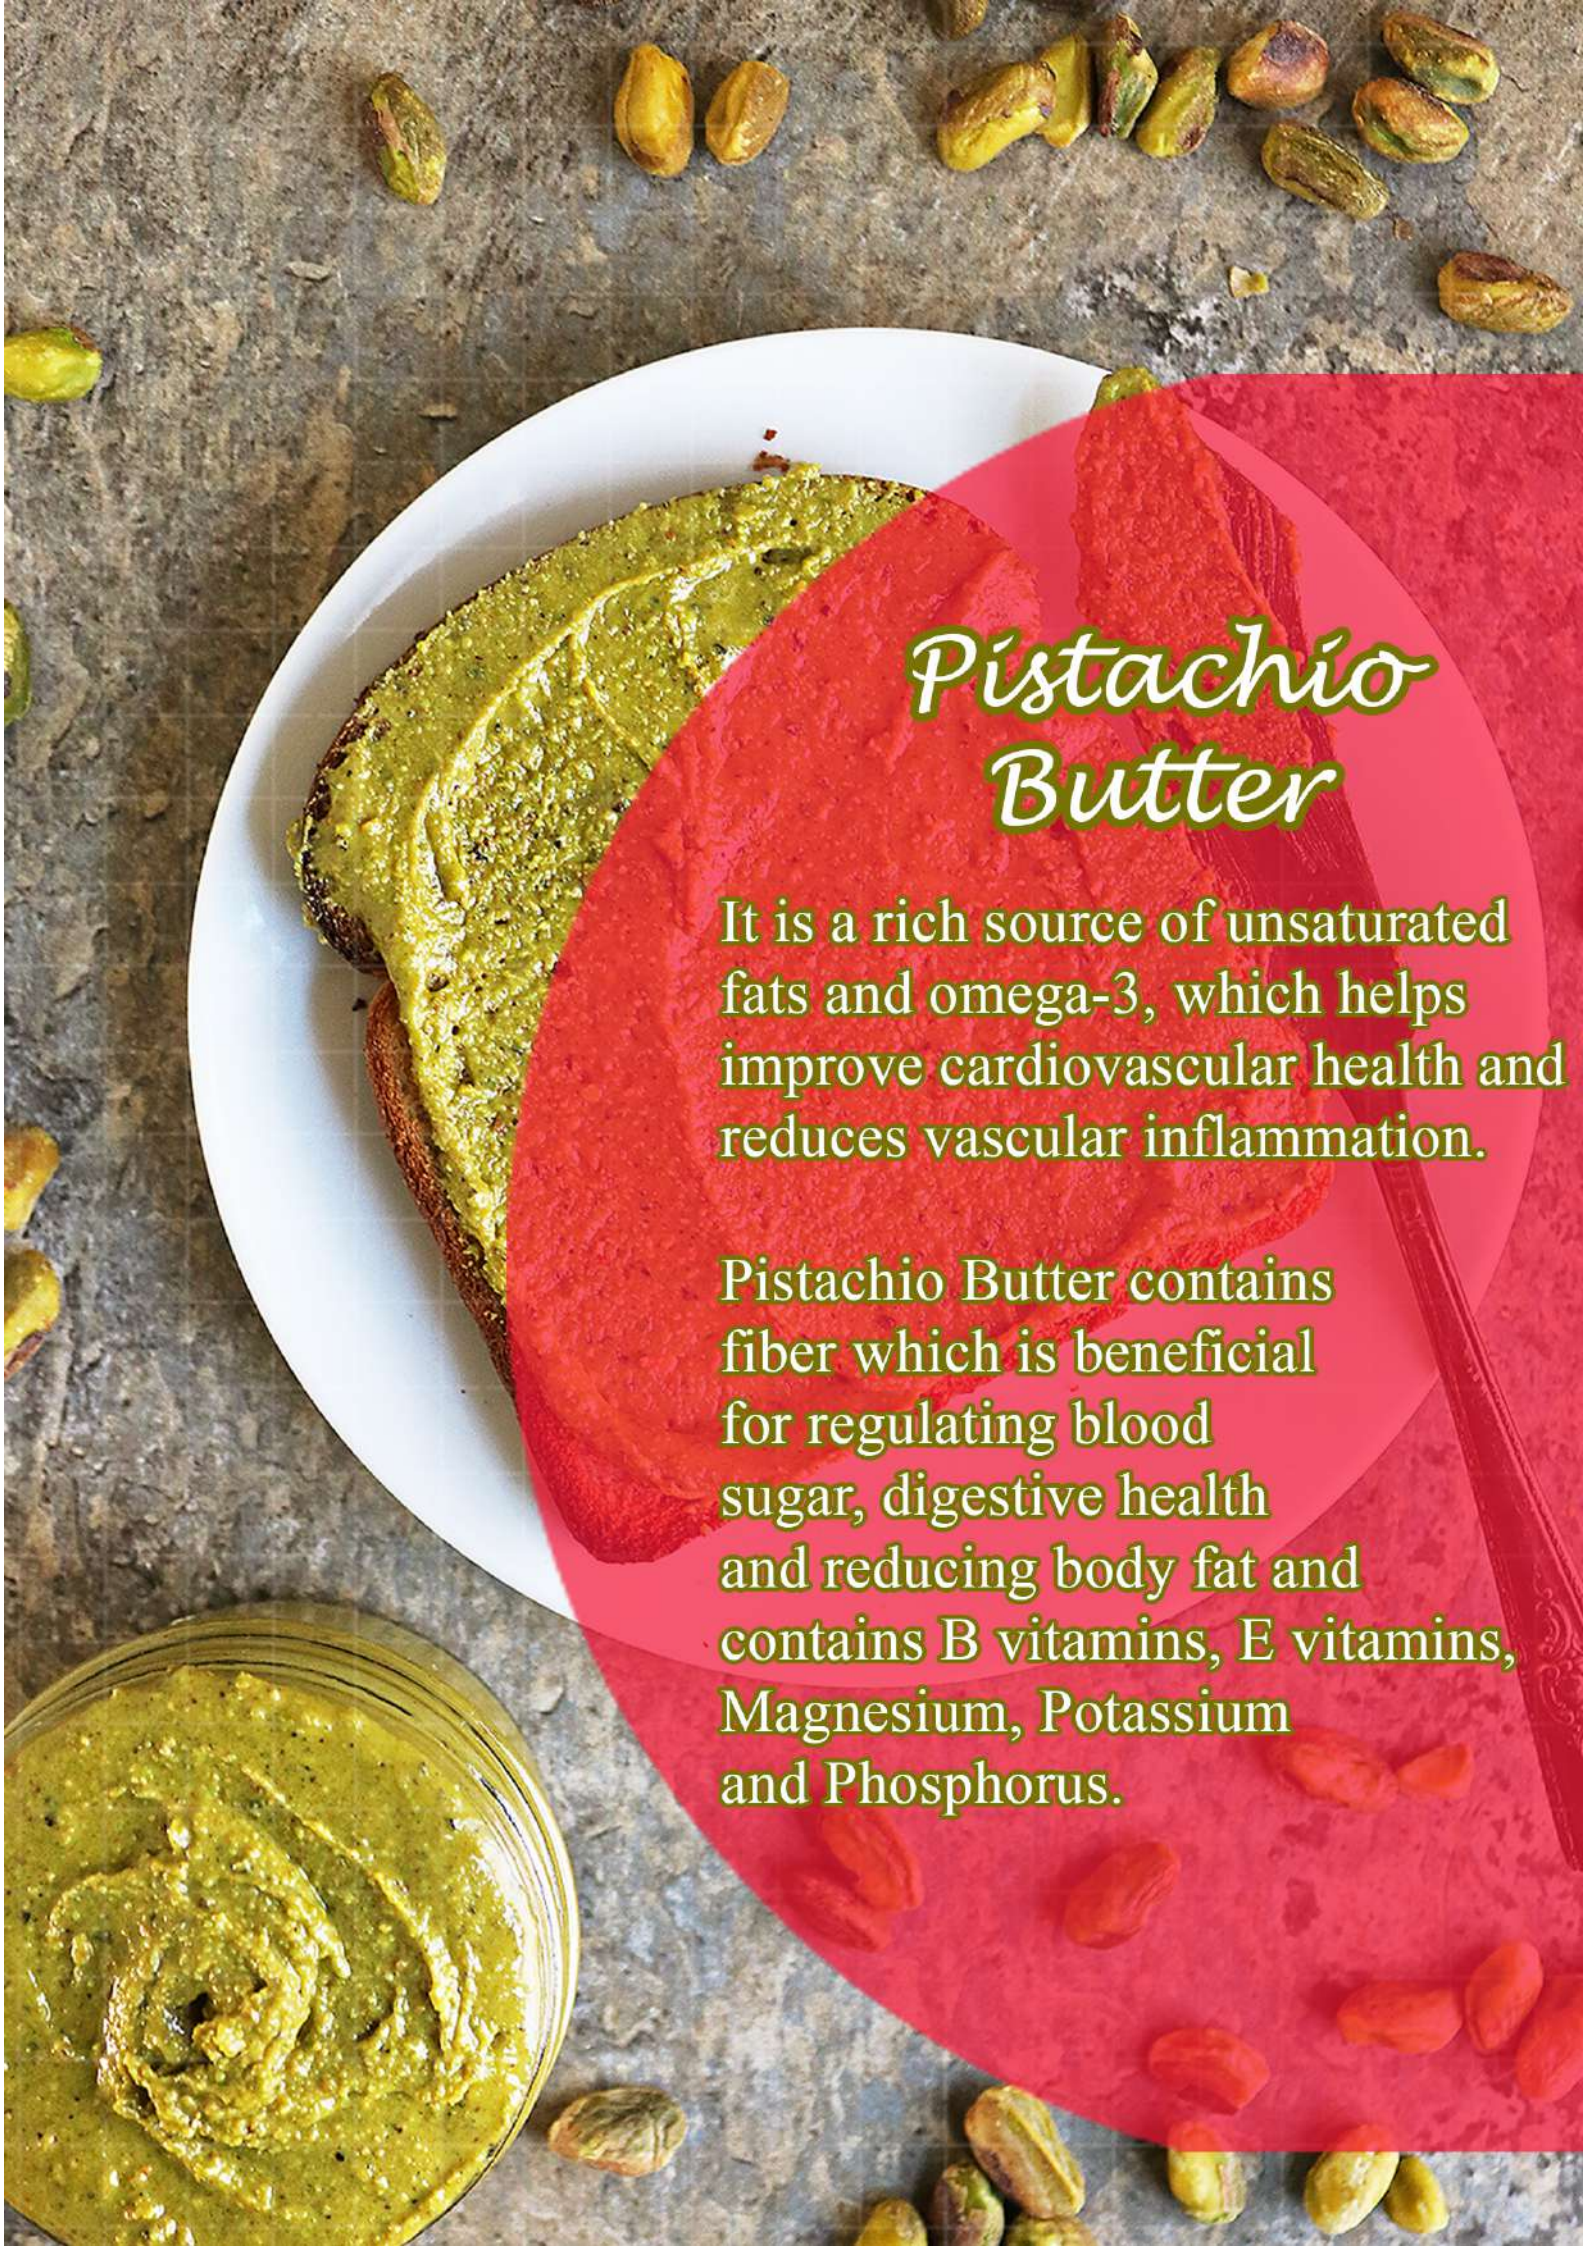

Iranian saffron is considered the finest in the world, prized for its rich aroma, vibrant color, and unique flavor. It's often referred to as "red gold" and is widely used in cooking, baking, and even in traditional medicine.

Iranian tomato paste is known for its rich flavor and vibrant color, often used in various dishes to enhance taste and texture. It's a staple in many kitchens, both locally and internationally.

Iranian dried apricots are celebrated for their delicious taste and chewy texture, making them a popular choice for export to international markets.

Pistachio Butter

It is a rich source of unsaturated fats and omega-3, which helps improve cardiovascular health and reduces vascular inflammation.

Pistachio Butter contains fiber which is beneficial for regulating blood sugar, digestive health and reducing body fat and contains B vitamins, E vitamins, Magnesium, Potassium and Phosphorus.

Chocodate

Chocodate contains nutrients as 75% dates and 15% almonds with a coating of 10% chocolate with different flavors.

It is a very nutritious and almost organic product. Chocodates with nuts are considered an excellent snacks which dates and almonds play a significant role in strengthening.

Memory and its unique chocolate coating gives it a wonderful tastes.
